Mr. W. R. Whitesaver, the Salem real estate hustler, was in the city business yesterday.

Messrs. J. T. Hartigan and W. L.
Nelson, one of Salem's live real estate agents, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Carson returned yesterday from a brief visit to friends in Petersburg.

Mr. W. H. Horton, the First street liveryman, is having an addition built to his stables. It will double the size of the present building.

A number of new buildings are going up in Vinton, and every indication is that this will be the biggest year the town has ever had.

President McQuade, of the Turkey Gap coal and coke company, with headquarters at Ennis, West Virginia, is in the city.

Mr. W. H. Thomas, of Coopers, West Va., general manager of the Coopers coal and coke company, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Charles B. Harris, who has been visiting relatives in Vinton for several weeks, returned to his home in Allemarie county yesterday.

Mr. M. F. Normoyle, of the contracting firm of O'Brien & Normoyle, is a Pulaski City superintendent of some work that they have there.

Maxey & Company yesterday afternoon took a photograph of the Shenandoah Valley offices, Gale Block, with all the officers and clerks standing in front.

Mrs. R. A. Hill, of Vinton, left yesterday for Scottsville, Albemarle county, in response to a telegram announcing the illness of her daughter, who is visiting there.

Mr. W. L. Tennyson, of this city, has accepted a position as Pullman car conductor between this city and Memphis and made his first trip Sunday.

The shipments of coal of the Potomac hentas Coal company for the week ending Saturday the 26th, were 40,750 tons; for the month to date, 155,771; for the year to date, 335,424 tons.

Messrs. Wingate & Haenkel, the well-known civil engineers of this city, have just closed the contract to lay off the property of the West Lynchburg and Wytheville Development companies, and will begin work at an early date.

Messrs. J. T. Brown & Co. have purchased the entire stock of goods belonging to Mr. J. C. F. Bell, the Second street grocer, and will continue the business at the same place.
The new management will be in charge May 1st.

Jailor Traynham left yesterday morning for Richmond, having in charge Isaac Jones, colored, who was sentenced to two years confinement in the State penitentiary at the last term of the Hastings court. Jones is sent up for housebreaking.

At a meeting of the city republican committee of Richmond last night it was agreed that the party should support in the coming municipal election J. C. Smith, the independent candidate for city sergeant. Mr. Smith supported Malone for governor last year.

In Danville, Wednesday night, Mrs.
Emma Raines started to walk across her room she said to her husband that unless she could get her breath she would die. Before he could reach her she fell to the floor in a faint and instantly expired.

The Rosebud Society, of Green Memorial church, is practicing daily for a sacred concert to be given Sunday night in the lecture room of the church. Mrs. Buchanan, wife of the assistant pastor, has the society in training and a musical treat may be expected.

An excursion party containing fifty persons passed through the city yesterday morning en route to the South.
They were in a special train which was due at the Union depot at 6:30 o'clock, but owing to an accident on the Shenandoah Valley railroad they did not arrive till 11:30. The party was made up mostly of Bostonians and New Yorkers.

Mr. Herbert Barbee, the Virginia sculptor, has just completed a new conception of his ideal art entitled "Twilight," which is much admired.
Mr. Barbee expects to commence work at an early day upon the statue of the Confederate soldier to be placed on the monument to the memory of the Confederate soldiers of Page county, proposed to be erected in Luray.

The Sunday school of St. Martin's Lutheran church held its annual election of officers Sunday morning.
The following gentlemen will take charge of the schools for the coming year: Hon. H. S. Front, superintendent; E. H. Kohn, first assistant; superintendent; T. W. Miller, second assistant superintendent; Llewellyn Lookbill, secretary and treasurer; George D. Howbert, librarian, and John T. Trout, assistant librarian.

The work of laying the Belgic block on Jefferson street, north, was commenced yesterday morning, and it is making a fine paving material.
These blocks are just about the right size, and horses are enabled to obtain a firm footing, whereas if they were larger the shoe would slip and throw the horse down. The city could not spend a thousand dollars to better advantage than by paying the principal business thoroughfares with some material of this nature.

A CALLED COMMUnication of Lake-

Ruby's Letter.
A letter from Mr. J. W. Ruby, Union City, Ind., says: "I have used your Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Cough Cure and find it a complete cure for deep-seated cold. It has done more than two of our most skillful physicians. My children had the Whooping Cough, and with the aid of your Cough Cure, they had it very light compared with the neighbor's children who did not take it. I believe it to be the best cough cure "in the market." So it is. A large bottle only $1.00. Clarke's Flax Soap for the skin. It heals them all. Price, 25 cents. Cough Cure and Soap for sale by Johnson & Johnson, drug gists.

she spends a few weeks every year.

A CHILD KILLED.
Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give the child such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Dr. Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Budwell, Chris-

A book by the late Ella Haggard, the mother of the novelist, will soon appear under the title of "Life and Its Author; an Essay in Verse." Mr.
Rider Haggard will contribute to the volume a memoir of his mother.

An Eminent Doctor's Prescription.
Dr. C. P. Henry, Chicago, Ill., who has practiced medicine many years, says: Last spring he used and prescribed Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure in 40 or 50 cases, and never knew a case where it failed to cure. "I know of no remedy I can rely on so implicitly." Positive cure of all diseases of the skin. Apply externally. Clarke's Flax Soap is best for babies. Skin Cure $1.00.
Soap 25 cents. At Johnson & Johnson's drug store.
